

Information kept about the health of people living in Devon by One Devon:

	One Devon is an organisation made up of people who work for the NHS, charities and local councils.
	One Devon's aim is to improve the lives of people living in Devon.
	One Devon needs information about the people who live in Devon so they can plan and deliver services.
	Information needs to be kept in one place so One Devon can use it to:
	• Improve health services.
	• Give person-centred health care and support.
	• Reduce poor health in the county.

	• Make plans for the future.
	• Reduce the strain on the NHS.
	One Devon are given information by partners across the county.
	For example: doctor surgeries, hospitals and people who provide social care.
	This information is kept in one place so One Devon can learn:
	• What makes people unwell.
	• What can be done to improve the local population's health and wellbeing.

	The information kept is confidential.
	One Devon are unable to work out who the information is about.
	Our partners will not send people's personal information. For example: their name or address.
